

Millions now living will never die

Psalm 41:2. Zeph. 2:3. Isaiah 2: 2-4.

A Golden Age Song.

1. There are so man - y prom - is - es giv - en By our God in His won - der - ful Book,
2. See, the dark clouds of trou - ble are roll - ing, And fear is en - cir - cling the earth:
3. Do you know that God's kingdom is nearing, That glo - ri - ous king dom of peace—
4. If you trust in the work of the Sav - ior, To cleanse you and keep you from sin.
5. 'Tis a mes - sage for you I am bring - ing, Oh, won't you re - ceive it to - day?

And man - y the sweet words of com - fort We find if we on - ly will look
And the treasures that man - y once val - ued, Are prov - ing of tri - fl - ing worth
Where you may be ho - ly and hap - py, Where sin, death and sor - row shall cease?
And re - flect to the whole world around you, The light of His Spir - it with - in;
Saith our God, "Those who seek me shall find me," In His Word He has shown you the way

But the one that to you should be dear - est Is this, that God's kingdom is nigh.
If you would be kept thro' the con - flict, On the Word of Je - ho - vah re - ly.
From the grave He will bring back your loved ones, And you nev - er need bid them good - bye,
Make a full un - re - served con - se - cra - tion, And then on your Sav - ior re - ly.
Oh! I pray that our Fa - ther may help you On His won - der - ful Word to re - ly.

And that you may be one of those mil - lions Now liv - ing who nev - er will die
Then you may be one of those mil - lions Now liv - ing who nev - er will die
For you may be one of those mil - lions Now liv - ing who nev - er will die
Then you may be one of those mil - lions Now liv - ing who nev - er will die
So that you may be one of those mil - lions Now liv - ing who nev - er will die.
